

Describing people

TAPESCRIPT

- Ms Dibbs So? What do you think, Sally?
- Sally Oh no! He's boring. He doesn't like going out. He just likes watching television.
- Ms Dibbs What about this one?
- Sally Oh no! He looks like my dad!
- Ms Dibbs Ok ... Now ... Oh, I think this is the one for you ... He's thirty-five years old ... He's tall and slim. He's got short black hair, beautiful brown eyes and a lovely smile.
- Sally Oh, I like him already.
- Ms Dibbs He's friendly and confident. Oh, he loves going out and having fun. You've got a lot in common, Sally ... You both like dancing and music ... and travelling too.
- Sally Fantastic! Can I see the photo?
- Ms Dibbs Here you are.
- Sally Oh!
- Ms Dibbs What is it?
- Sally He's my ex- boyfriend!
- Ms Dibbs Oh! Sorry

LISTENING COMPREHENSION EXERCISES

1 Why does Sally not want to go out with them? Match the three men with Sally's reasons (a-i).

1 First man

2 Second man

3 Third man

- a He is her father.
- b He looks like her father.
- c He's very old.
- d He's no fun.
- e He goes out too much.
- f He hasn't got a TV.
- g He is her ex-husband.
- h He is her ex-boyfriend.
- i He looks like her ex-boyfriend.

2 Complete the description of the third man with ONE word in each gap.

He's thirty-five years 1_____. He's tall and 2_____. He's got 3_____ black 4_____, beautiful, brown 5_____
and a 6_____ smile. He's friendly and 7_____. You've got a lot 8_____ common. He's Sally's 9_____.